BEING “IN THE MIDDLE”
MIDDLE SCHOOL AS A SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL TRANSITION
TONIGHT’S WORKSHOP AGENDA

1. What do we know about the middle school transition?
2. What does Gateway provide for our students’ social and emotional needs?
3. Restorative Practices: Building empathy, resolving conflicts
4. What can you do at home for your middle school student?
5. Discussion
What is a Middle Schooler?

What is a middle schooler?
I was asked one day.
I knew what he was,
But what should I say.

He is noise and confusion.
He is silence that is deep.
He is sunshine and laughter,
Or a cloud that will weep.

He is swift as an arrow.
He is a waster of time.
He wants to be rich,
But cannot save a dime.

He is rude and nasty,
He is polite as can be.
He wants parental guidance,
But fights to be free.

He is aggressive and bossy.
He is timid and shy.
He knows all the answers,
But still will ask “why?”

He is awkward and clumsy,
He is graceful and poised.
He is ever changing,
But do not be annoyed.

What is a middle schooler?
I was asked one day.
He is the future unfolding,
So do not stand in his way.

MIDDLE SCHOOL IS...

- A transition from having one teacher to several different teachers in several different rooms.
- More responsibility, rigor, assignments = more organization.
- A period of time when students want to become their own person, and get involved in their own choice of activities.
- A time when tremendous physical, cognitive, and emotional changes are going on AND when there is a wide variety of maturation among different children.
WHAT IS GATEWAY DOING TO PREPARE STUDENTS?

• Advisory Curriculum
• Restorative Practices
• Social Events
• Athletics
• Clubs
ADVISORY

• Small groups of students (15-18 in a group) meet everyday for at least 30 minutes.

• Sample Schedule:

  Monday is Community Circle
  Tuesday is Social Skills Lessons
  Wednesday is Assemblies and Advisory Clubs
  Thursday is Study Hall and Academic Check-ins
  Friday is Community-building Activities

• Students celebrate birthdays, discuss challenges, and develop trusting relationships with a small group of students and that one “charismatic” adult
Advisory Social Skills focus

✓ Empathy and Communication: Working in Groups, Friends and Allies, Considering Perspectives, Disagreeing Respectfully, and Being Assertive

✓ Bullying Prevention: Recognizing Bullying and Bystanders

✓ Emotion Management: Brain and Body and Calming-Down Strategies

✓ Problem Solving: Using Action Steps and Making a Plan
RESTORATIVE PRACTICES

A Restorative Approach involves putting our focus on:

• Reflecting upon and learning from challenges
• Developing empathy (understanding who was AFFECTED by what happened)
• Learning how to resolve conflicts
• Repairing the harm done rather than just choosing a consequence
RESTORATIVE QUESTIONS

When responding to conflict, a restorative approach consists in asking the following key questions:

1. What happened, and what were you thinking at the time?
2. What have you thought about since?
3. Who has been affected by what happened and how?
4. What about this has been the hardest for you?
5. What do you think needs to be done to make things as right as possible?

WHAT CAN WE DO FOR OUR PRETEEN AT HOME?
QUESTIONS AND TIPS FOR PARENTS

• Keep talking to your child. (DO think about when and how you ask questions)
• Shift gears from the direct involvement you have with a younger child to the support system a teenager needs.
• Make your child feel special by letting them know how much you love him or her.
• As always, take cues from her behavior and know that if she wants to talk about it, she will.
• Find the balance between helping your child manage things and becoming a micromanager of your child.
